

Since prying the high resolution images of NU Theater alums from the Library's Archives and posting them here, I got inspired to do more -- Look what I've been up to:

I want to, on the face of it, catalyze NU to make renovating Shanley Hall a priority for me so I can start a fundraising campaign among us sentimental 70s alums, but behind this --

I want NU to JOINTLY announce:

- a refusal to capitulate to the Trump Regime,
- A full-throated reinforcement of free speech on campus,
- A full-throated reinforcement of freedom of artistic expression on stage (The "Assassin's" incident was a dreadful disappointment IMHO)
- and at the same time, A RENOVATION OF SHANLEY. HALL
- (all to insure against negative blowback from prominent alums from a humiliating settlement ala Brown and Columbia -- and negative blowback in the world at large).

The present moment demands we do more than stand back and watch.
