

A man with a mustache and goatee, wearing a yellow and white checkered shirt, stands in front of a wall covered in a collage of Abraham Lincoln-related items. The collage includes a Springfield Shopper newspaper clipping titled "SQUIRREL RESEMBLES ABRAHAM LINCOLN FOUND", a US dollar bill featuring Lincoln, and various portraits and illustrations of Lincoln, including one with a dinosaur.

Chicago Sun-Times news columnist, Neil Steinberg, will discuss his book, You Were Never in Chicago. His book discusses the challenges an outsider of Chicago will face and discover in the midst of settling in this tightly-knit city. Steinberg uses his own experiences as a lens to see all the various immigrant groups that come to Chicago. He includes his experience with the Greek community and focuses on Maria Pappas, the Cook County Treasurer, who is a major figure in the book.
