

Peter Kapetan

Wikipedia
IMDB

KAPETAN--Peter Murray, was an accomplished actor, singer, and dancer, age 51, NYC, passed away peacefully June 4, 2008. Born October 21, 1956, he spent his childhood in Fairfield, CT, and graduated from Phillips Academy at Andover. Earning a degree at Northwestern University, Peter became a veteran of numerous On and Off-Broadway shows, touring productions, concert performances and benefits. A student of legendary dance teacher Luigi Faccuito, he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Survived by parents, Peter and Helen Kapetan, brother Nicholas Kapetan, sisters, Melissa (Kapetan) Russow, and Christine Kapetan. A memorial service will be held at Greenfield Hill Congregational Church in Fairfield, CT on Friday, June 13, at 2:00pm. Contributions may be made to The Actors Fund, 729 Seventh Ave, NYC ,10019.

<https://playbill.com/article/peter-kapetan-broadway-actor-dies-at-51-com-150903>

<https://www.legacy.com/us/obituaries/legacyremembers/peter-kapetan-memorial?id=23888854>

<https://www.legacy.com/us/obituaries/legacyremembers/peter-kapetan-obituary?id=23888854>

Peter Kapetan (C78), 51, New York City, June 4. An actor, singer and dancer, Mr. Kapetan enjoyed a theater career that spanned almost three decades. He most recently appeared on Broadway in The Wedding Singer as a Ronald Reagan impersonator and ensemble member.

Mr. Kapetan got his start on Broadway in the 1979 production of Got Tu Go Disco and later worked on Sunset Boulevard and Titanic. He also appeared in many national tours and off-Broadway productions.

Mr. Kapetan devoted many volunteer hours to NU Club of New York alumni events, including its "Ultimate Christmas Parties" in the 1970s, '80s and '90s. He often choreographed the shows and mentored young performers.

He is survived by his parents, Peter and Helen; two sisters, Melissa and Christine; and a brother, Nicholas.